Regional Manager

“The connection people in Liverpool have is probably in our DNA.”

“I am delighted to see the success of the last 2 years with GPH at the helm. As we now enter a very exciting period for Liverpool cruise port, with expected growth, we recognise the huge potential to enhance our operational offer and deliver exceptional experiences for our guests and partners. Also it is important to recognise the local tourism collaborations and community support, that is the foundation of all we do”
