SAXONIA

1954 - 1999

Saxonia made her maiden voyage from Liverpool Landing Stage to Quebec and Montreal on 2 September 1954, marking the beginning of a new era for Cunard's post-war Atlantic passenger services.

Launched by Lady Churchill on 17 February 1954, she was built by John Brown & Company at Clydebank. Saxonia was the first of four sister ships commissioned by the Cunard Line to restore and modernise its North Atlantic fleet following the losses of the Second World War and the retirement of several ageing line

MEET OUR TEAM

Greg Stephens Head Of Finance

"Having lived in Merseyside for the past 20 years, I have been proud to witness the region's remarkable growth. Over the last year, it has been a privilege to see the enjoyment on our guests' faces as they experience everything Liverpool has to offer.

As we enter an exciting period of growth, we remain committed to working with our partners to create new opportunities, enhance the visitor experience and deliver lasting benefits for our communities."
